BRITISH INCENSED.

The Seizure of English Vessels by Russia Causes a Storm of Indignation.

A REMARKABLE HOSTILE FEELING.

Conservatives Frankly Declare For a Policy of Reprisal Against Russian Attack on British Commerce.

Warlike Tone of Such Papers as the Times, Standard, Morning Post and the Daily Telegraph Has Had Its Effect.

London, July 21.—A press representative Wednesday night interviewed many prominent persons connected in close touch with the government relative to the seizure of British vessels by the steamers of the Russian volunteer fleet in the Red Sea. As a result of these inquiries there is shown to be a remarkable hostile feeling against Russia of a strength and bitterness almost without precedent since the Crimean war. Even the most conservative who have been in the service of the government for many years, and who openly deplored the haste with which they though Great Britain had plunged into the Transvaal war, Wednesday night frankly declared for a policy of reprisal against what is regarded here as Russia's violation of treaty and her piratical attack on British commerce.

The warlike tone of such papers as the Times, the Standard, the Morning Post and the Daily Telegraph, while in national crisis hitherto almost invariably advised caution, has had its inevitable effect. There has been stirred up a storm of indignation among all classes in the United Kingdom, and the strength of which the government itself can scarcely gauge.

Those who deplored the outbreak of the war between Japan and Russia are now among the most outspoken champions of a physical force that will prevent the repetition of the Malacca incident in the Red Sea.

Those few officials at the foreign office who are in full possession of all the details of Great Britain's desire to arrive at an entente with Russia are in despair. They realize that the policy so carefully fostered by King Edward and Foreign Minister Lansdowne will now be indignantly repudiated by all parties in the house of commons and involve with the public the downfall of any ministry advocating it.

Every nerve will be strained, however, by the foreign office, to secure from Russia an explanation that will pacify the aggrieved feelings of the British public, and no step will be taken officially that will tend to prejudice subsequent diplomatic negotiations looking to the settlement of all questions now outstanding between Russia and Great Britain.

However there is expressed at the foreign office and elsewhere almost poignant regret that Russia rightly or wrongly should have taken up the position evinced by the action of her volunteer cruisers in the Red Sea.

Special dispatches from Malta give alarmist accounts of the hurried departure from that port of the British cruiser and torpedo squadrons.

The captain of the Malacca asserts that the capture was made within the three mile limit.

The midshipman commanding this prize, which has set Europe by the ears and almost threatens consequences more serious than the actual war in the far east, ordered 400 tons of coal at Port Said, but the officials refused to supply the coal on the ground that the vessel had a supply sufficiently ample to take her to the Black Sea.

IN ST. PETERSBURG.

Possibility of Complications With Great Britain Talked Of.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—The news that Great Britain has delivered to Russia a protest against the capture of the peninsular and Oriental steamer Malacca in terms which are believed to be almost tantamount to a demand for the immediate release of the vessel, as well as a general protest against the action of the Russian volunteer fleet steamers in stopping ships in the Red sea, was not generally known here Wednesday night, but Wednesday morning's editorial broadside from the London newspapers reprinted here Wednesday afternoon was a sufficient warning of the state of the British mind and the public became greatly excited.

In the hotels and restaurants the war was temporarily forgotten and nothing excepting the possibility of complications with Great Britain was talked of.

Provided a blunder has not been made by the captain of the St. Petersburg in mistaking British government stores for contraband of war, Russia will probably be prepared to maintain the justice of the seizure, but if a mistake has been made, the government doubtless will order the Malacca to be set at liberty and pay the bill for her illegal detention.

LOST HIS LIFE IN THE SERF.

Judge Upton Muir, of Louisville, Ky., Drowned at Cape May.

Cape May, N. J., July 21.—Judge Upton Muir, of Louisville, Ky., who was spending his vacation here, lost his life in the surf Wednesday while bathing. The judge entered the water directly in front of the Stockton hotel, and had been enjoying his bath for about a half hour before he was drowned. He was in the water about knee deep and at a point where there are no gullies. Several persons on the beach saw him fall face downward, and as he did not immediately get up some of the bathers went to his rescue. He was unconscious, and every effort was made to resuscitate him without success. Among the first to appear on the scene was Gen. J. Watts Kearney, who is brother-in-law of the judge's widow, and with whom Judge and Mrs. Muir were staying. The general placed the body in charge of an undertaker and then went to the cottage and broke the news to Mrs. Muir. The body will be taken to Louisville Thursday. Besides the widow Judge Muir leaves two children.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning, believing that the judge probably was taken with cramps, as the water was quite cool, or that death was due to heart failure.

CHILD LABOR COMMITTEE.

A National Organization Has Been Formed in New York.

New York, July 21.—An organization to be known as "The National child labor committee" has been formed in this city, and at the first meeting to complete the organization and elect officers, it was announced that the committee has secured as the general secretary Samuel McCune Lindsay, commissioner of education in Porto Rico and professor of sociology in the University of Pennsylvania.

In speaking of the work of the commissioner Lindsay said:

"The National Child Labor Committee desires, wherever its co-operation is requested, to investigate the conditions under which children are engaged in gainful occupations in all parts of the country and to help create a healthy public sentiment in favor of giving every child the best possible chance to make the most of its life."

She Sends Telegram of Condolence to Kruger's Family.

Amsterdam, Holland, July 21—Queen Wilhelmina has telegraphed her condolences to the late Mr. Kruger's family on the death of the former president of the Transvaal, adding: "May the grandeur of his character and his patriotism be vaunted anew everywhere and may you and your compatriots thus find consolation for your grievous loss."

AT TATCHEKIAO.

A Serious Battle in That Direction Is Not Expected For Some Time.

Tatchekiao, July 21.—A serious battle in this direction may scarcely be looked for in the near future, owing to difficulties of transporting troops. Reports sent in by scouts show that the country south and southeast of here is clear of Japanese. There is little activity. The weather is hot and there is no rain.

Textile Workers to Strike.

Fall River, Mass., July 21.—By a vote of 1,510 to 396 the textile workers decided to strike on July 25 in all of the so-called union cotton mills of this city where a 12½ per cent. reduction in wages has been announced.

Brewers Strike Settled.

Application Filed For a Receiver.

St. Louis, July 21.—An application was filed in the circuit court Wednesday asking that a receiver be appointed for the Jerusalem Exhibit Co. and the Oriental Construction Co., World's fair concerns.

STRIKE AT AN END.

Agreement Reached at a Conference Between Packers and Union Officials.

TO BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.

Both Sides Sign Agreements to Abide by the Decision the Board of Arbitration May Make.

All the Old Employees Are to Be Reinstated Within 45 Days From the Date Work Is Resumed By the Packers.

Chicago, July 21.—The strike of the packing house employees, begun nine days ago, and which has demoralized the packing industry throughout the country, was settled here Wednesday night at a conference between representatives of the packers, the officials of the Meat Cutters' union and representatives of all the allied trades employed at the stockyard. The whole controversy will be submitted to a board of arbitration, both sides agreeing to abide by whatever decision this board may reach. Pending the decision of the arbitration board the men will be taken back to work as rapidly as possible by the packers, and it is agreed by the packers that all the old employees are to be reinstated within 45 days from the date work is resumed.

If any of the former employees are still unemployed at the expiration of that time, such persons are to have the privilege of submitting their cases to the arbitration board for settlement.

The strikers will return to work as soon as they can be notified of the peaceful adjustment of the trouble, and, it is said, that by Friday morning everything will be in normal shape at all the plants in the different cities where the employees were on strike. Half an hour after the decision had been reached Wednesday night to arbitrate, M. J. Donnelly, the strike leader, had got into communication by long distance telephone with the leaders of the strikers in outside cities and had notified them that a satisfactory settlement had been reached, and directed the strikers to return to work as soon as possible.

The settlement of the difficult by arbitration was brought about by the allied craft at the stockyards, who would have become involved in the controversy had it continued much longer.

The officers of these unions, which represent about 14,000 men, got together Tuesday and sent a final appeal to the packers asking for a three-sided conference Wednesday between the packers, the strikers and themselves, in a final effort to get both sides of the controversy together again and arrange some sort of agreement which would prevent the strike from spreading to the affiliated unions. This appeal of the Allied Trades unions received a favorable response from the packers, and Wednesday's conference was the result.

When the men return to work it will be under exactly the same conditions as prevailed before the strike was declared, with the exception that the question of a wage scale will be decided by arbitration. The old wage scale under which the union worked last year expired May 26. Since that time numerous conferences have been held between the packers and the union in an effort to settle on a new schedule, but without avail.

As many of the old employees as could be reached Wednesday night by the officials of the union were notified to return to work Thursday morning.

All the strikers who appear at the plants will be put to work as fast as possible, and by Thursday night it is believed that all the establishments will be running with full forces.

TIN-PLATE WORKERS.

They Affected a Settlement of the Wage Scale For Next Year.

Pittsburg, July 21.—The American Sheet and Tin-Plate Co. and the Tin-Plate Workers' Protective association affected a settlement Wednesday on a basis of 4½ per cent. reduction from last year's scale. In addition to this the company withdrew its demand that the workmen agree to a rebate on orders formerly filled by the Welsh manufacturers and gave the workmen many concessions not heretofore enjoyed.

That eminent Spaniard who offered $10,000 for the Spanish general who would invade the United States would have been safe in making it a million, says the Chicago News.

The Birmingham Age-Herald says Chicago has a no-bathing fad. Still, discover over the main entrance a most of us have to stop and wash the foot off every day or two.

SWALLOWED ACID.

Newport Girl Found a Bottle in the Street.

Newport, Ky., July 21.—Shockingly burned and suffering intense agony, seven-year-old Elizabeth Huber, Central avenue and Seventh street, was carried to the office of Mayor August Helmbold Wednesday by Mrs. Leonard Eicher, a neighbor.

The child had been playing in the street and had picked up a bottle containing carbolic acid. Thinking that the dark-colored fluid was good to drink, she swallowed half the contents of the vial. Her frantic screams aroused the neighborhood. Beside her was the half-emptied bottle. This was found by Mrs. Eicher, who carried the little one to Dr. Helmbold. The prompt use of emetics and soothing lotions saved the life of the girl.

TRIAL ENDS SUDDENLY.

His Resignation Came While Evidence Was Being Heard.

Louisville, Ky., July 21.—A sensational trial of R. W. Holbrook, county superintendent of schools, was suddenly brought to a close Wednesday by the resignation of Holbrook and an agreement between the attorneys that the proceedings be stopped.

At the instigation of the Mutual Protective society sensational charges were recently filed against Holbrook, alleging immorality, malfeasance and incompetency. The trial began last Monday, and evidence was still being heard when the end came Wednesday. State Superintendent Fuqua had just arrived with certain records, and was to have been the next witness. Twelve lawyers were employed, and the entire county was watching the case with much interest.

Lost Life in Burning Barn.

Richmond, Ky., July 21.—During a thunder storm lightning struck a stock barn on the farm of the late Cassius M. Clay, at Whitehall, burning it and cremating Charles Asher, a young farmer, who was inside the building. The man's charred remains were found an hour afterward.

THE ELKS' PARADE.

Line Ten Miles Long With 15,000 Uniformed Men and Many Floats, Etc.

BUFFALO GETS NEXT CONVENTION.

Chillicothe, O., Won the Prize For Having the Greatest Number of Men in the Line.

Richmond, Ind., Won For Wearing the Most Unique Uniform and Dayton, O., For Making the Neatest Appearance in Parade.

Cincinnati, July 21.—The Elks, assembled here, called Wednesday the banner day, not only of the 40th grand lodge, but also of the order. During the day they had a parade, which Chief Marshal Dunne estimated as ten miles long, with over 15,000 uniformed men in line and many floats and other designs. The 40 bands, averaging 30 pieces, made a total of 1,200 blowing their horns, while no one could estimate the thousands of throats along the line rivaling the horns in making noise.

Following the parade were barbecues in the parks, with refreshments for the multitudes. While all sorts of entertainments were in progress late in the afternoon and evening, the grand lodge was having one of the most exciting sessions in its history.

After being in session almost all night, the grand lodge had elected all of its officers except the grand secretary.

A Spirited Contest.

There was a spirited contest for this position, and when the grand lodge reassembled at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the balloting commenced. The first ballot resulted as follows: Fred. C. Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia., 313; T. R. A. Burke, of Richmond, Va., 286; David L. Watson, of Terre Haute, 91; Charles Stager, of Toledo, 16. There were several scattering votes, but still the total vote was less than half of the membership, and it was still less on the succeeding ballot.

When the name of Frank T. Hier, of Cincinnati, was presented, and there were only 540 votes cast as follows: Robinson, 273; Burke, 213; Watson, 44; Hier, 6; Stager, 4. When it was announced that Robinson finally had a majority of 2 over all, his friends carried him down the center aisle on a chair, and there was a great demonstration. Robinson is an unusually small man, and he was carried around on the shoulders of his friends for some time, and at times tossed from one to the other like a football.

The claims of Buffalo, Dallas, Syracuse and other cities were eloquently presented in a series of speeches for the meeting of the grand lodge and the reunion next July. Buffalo was an easy winner on the first ballot as follows: Buffalo, 140; Dallas, 69; Syracuse, 36; Atlantic City, 2.

There had been much work done for Saratoga, but its candidacy was withdrawn.

Wednesday night there was a very large ball in the exposition building, given by the Shriners to the visiting Elks, while other entertainments were in progress in different parts of this city. Thursday morning a session of sorrow was held, with many attractions for the afternoon and evening.

Cincinnati and Hamilton, O., Covington, Newport, Bellevue and Dayton, Ky., although represented in the parade Wednesday, were not eligible for the prizes awarded as follows: Chillicothe

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.
ALTON BROOKS PARKER
of New York.
For Vice President.
HENRY G. DAVIS
of West Virginia.
For Congress.
JAMES N. KEEHOE
of Mason County.

JUDGING from press reports of the Elks reunion at Cincinnati this week, the aim of the antlered herd seems to have been to see how much liquor they could get outside of. Some of the West Virginia "herd" were so generous that they gave some of their beer to a couple of bear cubs they had, with the result that the animals were hard to handle by the time they reached the Queen City, and one of them attacked a woman who was viewing the crowd and almost stripped her of her clothing.

FRANKFORT, KY., July 19.—Complaints are coming to the office of the State Librarian from all over Kentucky because of the failure to send out the printed copies of the acts of the last General Assembly.

It is due to the Librarian to state that the delay is not here, but in the office of the public printer at Louisville, in whose hands the copy for the volume has been for several weeks. He now promises to complete the work the last of the present week.

In the meantime people who wanted copies of certain acts have been compelled to plunk down a big fee to one of the State officials. Has there been collusion to delay the publication of the acts? It might be well for the next Legislature to investigate. The BULLETIN has no use for any one who would thus prostitute his office.

ROOSEVELT WEAK IN NEW YORK.

The New York World believes the Democrats will carry the Empire State next November, basing its belief partly on the weakness of the leader of the opposition ticket. It says:

The starting-point of Theodore Roosevelt's career as President was his election as Governor in 1888. If it had not been for that event he would not have been thought of for Vice President.

In further confirmation of what the World has said as to Mr. Roosevelt's weakness in his own State it is instructive to look at the Republican pluralities in the years immediately preceding and following his election as Governor:

1894—Morton, for Governor.....156,308
1895—Secretary of State.....90,246
1896—McKinley, for President.....268,468
1898—Roosevelt, for Governor.....17,786
1900—Odell, for Governor.....111,126

The average Republican plurality in these five elections was nearly 130,000. Mr. Roosevelt's plurality was less than 18,000, though he ran in the year of the Spanish war, with the story of his undoubted gallantry in Cuba fresh in the public mind. Yet though the people admired his courage they did not like his temperament nor trust his discretion in an executive office. The voters in this city in particular had not forgotten his crusade as Police Commissioner against the personal rights and liberty of citizens and his oppressive and discriminating enforcement of the Sunday and excise laws.

So unpopular was Mr. Roosevelt that he would have been defeated but for Boss Croker's stupid blunder in refusing a renomination to Judge Daly on the ground that the Judge "had not given Tammany proper consideration." Outraged by this brutal edict of the Boss, the most eminent Democratic lawyers in the city organized and vigorously conducted a campaign for a free and independent judiciary. Hundreds of independent voters, disgusted at the domination of Croker, voted the whole Republican ticket. And yet, with all this adventitious aid Mr. Roosevelt's plurality was so small that a change of fewer than 9,000 votes would have defeated him.

Prevention of Lockjaw.

Tetanus or lockjaw is frequent in wounds caused by blank cartridges, old nails, and pitchforks. These instruments are free from the bacillus of tetanus, but the hand, foot, or face or part injured is more or less covered with street dirt containing the bacilli, which, through the wound, are inoculated into the blood.

Dr. Eisendrath of Chicago, in a recent article, claims that thorough and early cleansing of the wound will prevent the development of tetanus in every case.

TOBACCO GROWERS.

Thirty Counties Represented at Meeting of Burley Association at Lexington This Week.

[Lexington Hera'd]

There was a meeting of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association held at the court house Tuesday at which about thirty counties in the State were represented. The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. B. Hawkins, President of the association. The most important feature of the meeting was the report of the Finance Committee, and when seen and asked the nature of the report as made by that committee, President Hawkins said that while the report was entirely satisfactory to the directors of the association, he was not yet ready to make the report public.

President Hawkins stated that the meeting was a very enthusiastic one and that not only the directors of the organization, but the delegates as well, were pleased with the report of the Finance Committee.

FIRE TO DESTROY GERMS.

Practical Test Made in Fighting Typhoid and Diphtheria by This Method in London.

An invention which the municipal authorities of London recently put to a practical test seems likely to become one of the deadliest enemies of typhoid, diphtheria and other evils resulting from sewer gas.

At Manor place, Walworth, a powerful fan, worked by manual power, first extracted foul air from the sewers by means of suction, and, by forcing it through a sharp breeze fire, consumed all the germs before they could escape into the open air. Then the sewers were disinfected.

"I was very pleased with the impression created by my apparatus," declared H. Court, the inventor, after the test.

"Its effectiveness and cheapness seem to have appealed to men who for years have been battling with the evil effects of impure drains."

The L. and N.'s earnings the second week of July show a decrease of $46,815.

The L. and N. will sell one way second class settlers' rates to the Southeast on the first and third Tuesdays of each month until Nov. 15th.

Home endorsement is the proof that backs ev'ry box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case:

Mr. Fred W. Bauer, job printer of 4 East Second street, says: "For a year or more I had considerable pain in my back. The secretions from the kidneys were dark and there was some inflammation of the bladder evidenced by a sensation of scalding. Doan's Kidney Pill came to my knowledge and I procured them at J. James Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment soon restored the kidney secretions to a natural color, ended the inflammation and banished the pain from my back. If a cold or any other cause should bring on a recurrence I now know what to use."

The venerable Mrs. Sophia Arthur, one of the county's loved and highly respected residents, died Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at her home near Shannon, in the eighty-sixth year of her age. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence, Rev. Mr. Ecklar of Sardis officiating. Interment at Shannon.

Mrs. Arthur was the widow of the late Thomas B. Arthur, having been united in marriage with him in 1839, at Aberdeen. Her maiden name was Grimes. MR. NATHAN MEFFORD.

A Native of Mason County Joins the Silent Majority—His End a Peaceful One.

Word has been received by relatives here of the death of Mr. Nathan Mefford on July 5th at the home of his brother, Robert Mefford, of Franklin, Tenn.

Deceased had been in feeble health for about two years, and had spent the last two winters in Tennessee in hopes of regaining his strength, but to no avail. He had been failing fast since June. He arose on the morning of the 5th shortly after the family had eaten breakfast, and while at the table died in his chair. The end was so peaceful the family could hardly realize at first that death had entered the home.

Mr. Mefford was well known here, having been born on the farm now owned by Mr. Joseph Cochran. He was a son of the late John Mefford, one of the pioneers of Mason County, and was in his seventy-fifth year.

Master Commissioner C. Burgess Taylor on Wednesday was exhibiting a Japanese plum, pulled from a tree at his home on East Second street that weighed three and three-quarter ounces. It was so large that some persons to whom it was shown pronounced it a tomato at first glance. In shape as well as in size, it resembled the tomato more than a plum. Mr. Taylor bought the tree for a green gage plum and was on the point of cutting it down a year ago because it had not borne any fruit. This year there are only three plums on the tree, but it is said to be very prolific when the tree reaches maturity.

In an opinion given to Superintendent of Public Instruction Fuqua, Attorney General Hays holds that the common school fund of the State is entitled to its proportionate part of funds and taxes paid into the Insurance Department, which apportionment has not been made since 1893. Something like $150,000 is involved, and proceedings will be instituted to compel Auditor Hager to make the apportionment.

Josephine Price, the negro girl arrested by Maysville police and taken to Ripley on charge of petit larceny, was fined $50 and given thirty days in the work house.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Minerva Club Enjoyed Unique Contest at Mrs. E. G. Kirk's—Mrs. Henry Norris Entertains With Progressive Flinch.

Mrs. E. G. Kirk of Tuckahoe very delightfully entertained the Minerva Club and other friends Saturday from 3 to 6 o'clock with a unique contest called "A Musical Romance," a love story of the Civil War. As the hostess asked the questions, Mrs. Russell White played the music, the title of the selection being the answer to the question. It afforded a test of the guests' knowledge of the popular airs and was greatly enjoyed, Mrs. Ben Chandler of Minerva being the successful contestant.

The parlor and adjoining rooms were prettily decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums, the dining room in roses and ferns. Delightful frappe was served by Misses Lelah Martin and Susie Norris during the afternoon. At the close of the contest, dainty refreshments were served. Those present, outside of the Minerva Club, were Mrs. Russell White, Misses Bessie and Lelah Martin, Messes T. D. Osborne, Henry Norris, James Asbury, C. T. Asbury, William Mackoy, Misses Martha Bouldin, Susie Norris, Olive Mackoy of Iowa and Fannie French of Covington.

Mrs. Henry Norris entertained Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at her handsome home near Germantown with progressive flinch. She was assisted by her daughter, Miss Tillie, and sister, Mrs. Dr. Coburn. There were four tables.

The tally cards were pen pictures drawn by Miss Tillie Norris and were a source of much merriment, representing Old Mother Goose riding a strawless broom. As a game was won a straw was added to the broom.

The game was very close, five ladies winning five games out of six. After an exciting test game Miss Elizabeth Wood of Washington won the prize.

Lemonade was served during the game and at the close delicious refreshments were enjoyed. The visiting guests were Miss Fannie French of Covington, Mrs. Russell White of Bernard, and Misses Bessie Martin and Edith Perrine of this city.

CAMPING AT BRUSH CREEK.

Party of Y. M. C. A. Young Men Enjoying an Outing at an Up River Point.

Secretary Brown and eight members of the local Y. M. C. A. are enjoying an outing on the banks of the Ohio at the mouth of Brush Creek, twenty miles above Maysville. The party is composed of Messrs. Stephen Hunter, Thaddeus Campbell, Charles Ballenger, Charles Zweigart, Thomas Zweigart, Will Porter, Will Lurtey and Charles Heimer. Captain Plaster took them up Wednesday morning on the trim little Newt. Cooper, the party reaching their destination at noon. They expect to spend several days. Master Thomas Zweigart is well supplied with fishing tackle and hopes to land some of the big pike and catfish that frequent Brush Creek.

Brush Creek is eight miles above Manchester. Parties wishing to visit the camp and go by railroad should get off at Concord. Their postoffice address is Grimes P. O., Adams County, O.

Painless extraction of teeth at Dr. Cartmell's.

The boys who are frequenting the swimming pool in Limestone Creek at bridge on Fleming pike had better provide themselves with bathing suits. Complaint has been made and the officers will be after them unless they heed the warning.

Hon. R. A. Adams of Clarksburg, W. Va., who started some days ago to visit his son, Rev. M. B. Adams, of Frankfort, has disappeared, and it is feared he met with foul play. He was traced as far as Georgetown, and it is thought he took an electric car from there to Lexington. He was known to have had considerable money on his person when he disappeared.

At the meeting of the Bracken Association of Baptists to be held in this city Aug. 3rd, 4th, and 5th, services will be held commemorative of the centennial anniversary of the Baptist Church of this city. Several interesting addresses on the centennial will be delivered at the night sessions. The Baptists began their work in Maysville in 1787, and organized their church some years later.

The threshing season is at hand and the big traction engines traversing our public roads. It is a very gentle horse that can meet one of those puffing, snorting monsters with equanimity, and many steeds are thrown into paroxysms of terror at the sight of one. In this connection it is well to call attention to the law which requires a messenger to go ahead of the engine at a safe distance to warn drivers of the approach of the engine and thus prevent accidents.—Exchange.

Mr. Will Rogers, of the firm of G. W. Rogers & Co., has the thanks of the Bulletin for a combination pocket knife, cork screw and cigar trimmer, advertising Roger's celebrated "Old Stock." It is a very convenient article and will be highly prized by lovers of "Old Stock."

What's the Matter With the Moon Tonight

SUPPOSE

A SUMMER IDYL—IN A HAMMOCK SWINGING IN THE MOONLIGHT.

Suppose, my dear, that you were I,
And by your side your sweetheart sat;
Suppose you noticed by and by
The distance 'twixt you were too great;

New tell me, dear, what would you do?

I know—and so do you.

And when (so comfortably placed)
Suppose you only grew aware
That that dear, dainty little waist
O' hers looked very lonely there;

Pray tell me sooth—what would you do?

I know—and so do you.

When, having done what I just did
With not a frown to check or chill,
Suppose her red lips seemed to bid
Defiance to your lordly will;

Oh, tell me, sweet, what would you do?

I know—and so do you.
